Customer Reviews

First, my mouth is watering. There are a multitude of problems, and if fixed, will make this a favorite cookbook, even though I am not Pakistani. The second recipe, Chicken Omelette, in the directions, calls for "add fried potatoes." No fried potatoes anywhere else in the recipe. Aloo Bhujia is in the book twice. Use the second recipe as it contains what you need for the Paratha. I know this is a typo, but is Keema Partha a "flak" bread as the description says or a flat bread, which is what I think is meant? Green chiles are mentioned quite a lot. What KIND of green Chile's? Does it matter? The Pahi (Dahi? Can't read my own handwriting) Bhallar (again, handwriting) and the Fruit Chat look yummy!! Finally, in the Vegetable Pualoo (see whining about my own handwriting) calls for soaking something in water. I am assuming the fresh peas but may be wrong. Above all else that I do appreciate in this book is if you need cardamom, no guessing green or black. HOORAY!! If Encore

Books and the author could fix those errors, this would be a ten star book in my mind.

I like the variety of recipes presented in this short book covering the essential Pakistani cuisine.

Highly recommended

GREAT KINDLE READ!!!
