Err... Well, hmm. Remember that piece of classical music by John Cage 4'33" which is of utter silence? This reminds me of that somewhat. As there's nothing here. That's not entirely true, there are lots of blank pages. It's a form of art and would go splendidly next to such books as War and Peace and Duke & Michel: The Mysterious

Corridor.<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zY7UK-6aaNA>

This is a book about exactly what it says. Absolutely nothing. The pages are blank. This makes a great novelty piece for the coffee table or to put somewhere near the front entrance. You can also use it as a journal to write down random thoughts about "absolutely nothing".

This book had me laughing...but don't expect too much from it (or even anything at all!)Great for the coffee table, great as a conversation point. (Even great for all those people who'd like to write their own book - just fill in the details on the blank pages!)
